

The Brief

How can wearable technology minimize our impact on the environment by collecting and sharing our ecological footprint?

Answer

Develop a game out of wearable technology that keeps kids actively engaged in learning about their impact on the environment.

The Proposal

Annual competition across Toronto Schools (1 month duration)

David Suzuki Foundation

SOLUTIONS ARE IN OUR NATURE

The Proposal

Grade 1 students will be given a wearable device to compete in daily environmental tasks.

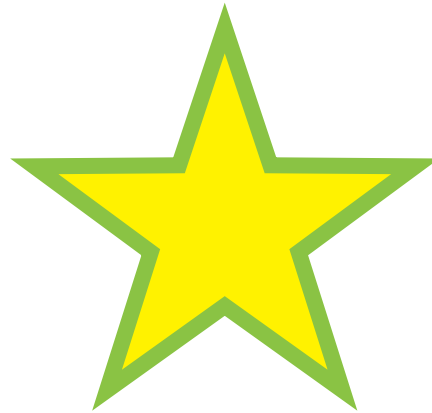

The Proposal

A daily alert will be sent to the students with a specific task to complete.

The Proposal

Each student will earn points (stars)
for tasks completed.

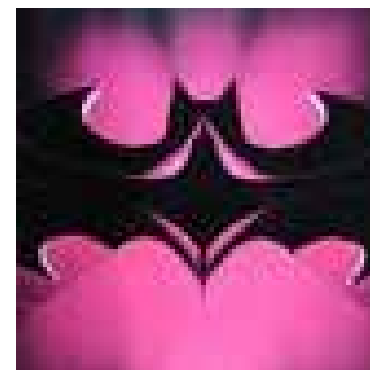

The Proposal

The class to earn the most points at the end of the year wins.

INSPIRATION

Bright. Fun. Heroic. Youthful. Spirited.

DOESN'T WANT TO BE A SUPER HERO!?

MEET THE "ECO HEROS"

GAIA

(THE ECO LEADER)

The “Eco Heros” were chosen by Gaia, the spirit of the earth, to help her restore the earth’s equilibrium.

She gave them each unique superpowers according to their personalities.

.....

A cunning hero with natural talents and skills which allowed her to receive the power of controlling energy. Pink Blaze keeps the gears of the team in constant motion, reporting directly to Gaia. She focuses herself in the task of protecting the world by obtaining her power from renewable energy.
